

Mansbridge Primary School

Personal development values

At Mansbridge interpersonal skills, character development and communication skills are a golden thread throughout the curriculum

1. General ethos

Happy memories
Enjoyment and fun
Love of learning/school
One community /family

2. Relating to self

Self-esteem, confidence
Reaching potential
Developing a sense of spirituality
Being healthy
Improving your own learning/ metacognition
Communication skills
Preparation for next stage
Being creative
Independence
Personal safety

3. Relating to others/community

Friendship
Understanding/developing relationships
Team work
Global awareness and responsibility
Cultural appreciation
Equality/diversity
Contributing to society /citizenship
Fundamental British values

4. Managing situations

Managing conflict
Managing disappointment
Managing time and resources
Managing risk and uncertainty – taking risks
Appropriate behaviour – self-control